INTRO DUCING

To build the exceptional teams of News UK and PremFina we are now looking for outstanding software engineers keen to work with some of the latest technologies and ready to impact the way modern media and financial services work. Know such people? Check the specific roles at www.questers.com/op and recommend them at recommend@questersgroup.com

logitech

In July we have announced our thrilling partnership with Logitech - a world leader in designing products that connect people to the digital experiences they care about. The main goal of the new collaboration was to build a team of digital marketing professionals who would support the online presence of the company in the EMEA region.

Later on, in September we were extremely happy to welcome the first team members of Logitech's team to our big family.

In September, we announce yet another exciting partnership. PremFina – a fast growing premium FinTech company, due to the increased demand for its services, took a strategic step to expand its operations in Bulgaria with the support of Questers.

The company provides brokers with their own-branded premium finance software and financing options and also enables self-funding by insurance brokers and MGAs via its Software-as-a-Service affiliate IXL PremFina.

News UK

There is such thing as the good news, and we proved it with the announcement of our strategic partnership with News UK, the media group behind one of the most powerful media brands such as The Times, The Sun and The Sunday Times.

The Bulgarian team of News UK would assist the digital transformation of the company by developing a seamless platform that will allow digital editors to create and publish interactive content on various platforms and ensures consistent user experience.

Zero waste Discussion

On July 4, in line with our Questers Goes Green campaign, we've invited the inspiring Danita Zarichinova from "Za Zemiata" to discuss with us the main issues with waste, what are the possible solutions and how to reduce it in order to achieve "zero waste". Here are some of the tips Danita shared, and if you also support the idea of sustainable living, you could try applying:

Reduce the plastic

Bring your own cup for coffee in the coffee shop, use a reusable food container and use your fabric bag when shopping.

Reuse

Be creative - could the old computer be turned into an art shelf or the bunch of old t-shirts you are planning to throw away become your new bathroom rug?

Recycle

1 recycled plastic bottle would save enough energy to power a 60-watt light bulb for 3 hours. It's worth it to try throwing the next plastic bottle in the recycled bin.

EVENTS

Summer Beauty with Wild Cosmetics

July 11 was all about natural beauty. We welcomed the lovely Anna from Wild Cosmetics to share with us few little secrets about various aromatic rituals and the importance of herbs. Over a glass of cold herbal tea, we talked about our skin's structure and how it utilizes valuable natural ingredients. At the end of our discussion, we received an individual professional dermatologic advice.

JavaBeer

The summer couldn't go without a JavaBeer event at our awesome terrace. On August 23 we welcomed the great community of the Bulgarian Java User Group for a pleasant evening with a couple of beers and cool prizes. We enjoyed the nice view, friendly company and interesting talks. Ah... we should definitely think of a winter edition too :)

Questers recognized as a company that supports the Bulgarian education

In July we were honoured to be recognised as an organization that supports the Bulgarian education by the Centre for Inclusive Education (CIE). The recognition comes as a result of our continuous collaboration with Teach for Bulgaria and the numerous initiatives we've executed together during the last 3 years.

Receiving an appreciation for our efforts is always motivating us to keep on working for the improvement of the Bulgarian Education system through various activities. We are in preparation of a number of initiatives, so stay tuned. What's more, if you have a suitable educational cause in mind that you think we shall support, make sure you share it with us at giving@questersgroup.com

QuizIT vol. 4 will be an exciting time travel to the 80s and 90s with a number of curious questions and cool prizes, so you should definitely think of gathering a team and joining us.

Our Refer-a-Friend programme, you have probably heard of, is more exciting than ever. Now for bringing your tech friends into Questers, you will be receiving not only a financial bonus but also a special monthly reward.

Don't believe it? Here's our colleague Monica from the Funding Circle team who was the first lucky winner. In July she referred an awesome Ruby Engineer who joined us in September and we've rewarded her with a GoPro camera.
